Purcellville Man Sentenced to 18 Months for Possession of Child Pornography

(Alexandria, VA) -- David Michael Fioramonti, age 35, of Purcellville, Virginia, was sentenced today to 18 months in prison for possession of child pornography, in violation of federal law. United States Attorney Chuck Rosenberg and Joseph Persichini, Jr., Assistant Director in Charge, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington Field Office, made the announcement following Fioramonti's sentencing by United States District Judge James C. Cacheris.

Upon his release from incarceration, Fioramonti will remain under Court supervision for a term of 10 years. Fioramonti also will be required to register as a sex offender in any jurisdiction in which he lives, works or goes to school.

According to court documents, between January 2000 and on or about May 5, 2004, Fioramonti knowingly possessed multiple computer files containing photo and video depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct. The children depicted in many of these images were as young as 5 years old.

This investigation was conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Leesburg Police Department. This case is being prosecuted by Special Assistant United States Attorney Edward J. McAndrew, who is on detail from the Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section of the Department of Justice.
